SATURDAY MARCH 92 1861 The Ilon, Garrett Davis delivered a most gust next." ow rful and elequent speech at Paris the other lay. We call attention to the very full syntince would soon have to leave or do worse, for or otherwise will remember, a eat, that had self on the wall as il' dead, and dropping down e forth to cynlt in his supposed fate, by sindred trick of squatting in a meal tub and evering himself with the contents, intending to spring upon the mice as they came to nubble at is deceitful robe, by which means he suceseded in catching none, and thereup in retired from history. This is the fable.

The secession leaders, a fortnight or less ago, sent forth a secret circular, in which the avowed the purpose of secession in these dis inct and unmistakable terms: In many parts of the State Southern Rights

Clubs have been formed for the purpose of organizing an effective hand of true Southern men, who will use their i lluence at once to place Kentucky in her proper position.
